

News from St Philip's

Friday 11th November

Fun Run

A massive thank you to everyone for your generosity helping to raise £8000, which will be going towards new playground equipment in the school. Medals for money raised will be awarded to the children shortly.

Teacher of the Year

Congratulations to Shelley Parsons, who teaches in our Reception year group, as she has been awarded 'Teacher of the Year' at the Warrington Guardian Inspiration Awards 2016. We are all very proud of her achievements!

Stone Age Workshop

Children in Y3 were all very excited as they took part in a savage Stone Age workshop on 8th November. Sophie Hayes in Miss Cragg's class said, "We performed raps about the Stone Age and created different pieces of drama about the Bronze Age too. We even acted out a roleplay about Stonehenge. It was so much fun".

Online Safety

Net Aware is an online tool that informs parents about social networks, apps and games that children might be using and why they like using the sites. Parents can also sign up for regular newsletters to keep up with digital trends. For more information visit net-aware.org.uk.
