"Together we aim high and with God's love we can fly"

SMSC Policy and SMSC in Subjects

Date of Review	Action
December 2018	Policy reviewed

- To enable pupils to develop an understanding of their individual and group identity.
- To enable pupils to begin to develop an understanding of their social and cultural environment and an appreciation of the many cultures that now enrich our society.
- To give each pupil the opportunity to explore social and moral issues, and develop a sense of social and moral responsibility.

Implementation of Policy

Principles of SMSC

- All curriculum areas have a contribution to make to the child's spiritual, moral, social and cultural development and opportunities for this are identified in termly plans.
- All adults should model and promote expected behaviour, treating all people as unique and valuable individuals and showing respect for pupils and their families.
- The school community is a place where pupils can find acceptance for themselves as unique individuals, and where forgiveness and the opportunity to start again is fundamental to the ethos of the school.
- Pupils learn to differentiate between right and wrong in as far as their actions affect other people.
- Pupils are encouraged to value themselves and others.
- Pupils understand the need for rules and the need to abide by rules for the good of everyone.
- School and classroom rules reflect, reiterate, promote and reward acceptable behaviour and provide opportunities to celebrate pupils' work and achievements.
- All curriculum areas seek to use illustrations and examples drawn from as wide a range of cultural contexts as possible. This is reflected in teachers' planning and purchasing decisions.

Teaching and Organisation of SMSC

At St Philip's development in SMSC will take place across all curriculum areas, within activities that encourage pupils to recognise the spiritual dimension of their learning, reflect on the significance of what they are learning, and to recognise any challenges that there may be to their own attitude and lifestyle. All curriculum areas should seek illustrations and examples drawn from as wide a range of cultural contexts as possible.

At St Philip's class debates, discussions and circle time will give pupils opportunities to:

- Talk about personal experiences and feelings.
- Express and clarify their own ideas and beliefs.
- Speak about difficult events, e.g. bullying, death etc.
- Share thoughts and feelings with other people.
- Explore relationships with friends/family/others.
- Consider others needs and behaviour.
- Show empathy.
- Develop self-esteem and a respect for others.
- Develop a sense of belonging.
- Develop the skills and attitudes that enable pupils to develop socially, morally, spiritually and culturally, e.g. empathy, respect, open mindedness, sensitivity, critical awareness etc.

At St Philip's curriculum areas provide opportunities to:

- Listen and talk to each other.
- Learn an awareness of treating all as equals, and accepting people who are physically or mentally different.
- Agree and disagree.
- Take turns and share equipment.
- Work co-operatively and collaboratively.

Links with the wider community

- Visitors are welcomed into school.
- Links with the church are fostered through links with the local church and the Diocesan Board of Education.
- The development of a strong home/school link is regarded as very important, enabling parents and teachers to work in an effective partnership to support the pupil.

- Pupils will be taught to appreciate their local environment and to develop a sense of responsibility to it.

Spiritual Development

At St Philip's we aim to provide learning opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- Sustain their self-esteem in their learning experience.
- Develop their capacity for critical and independent thought.
- Foster their emotional life and express their feelings.
- Experience moments of stillness and reflection.
- Discuss their beliefs, feelings, values and responses to personal experiences.
- Form and maintain worthwhile and satisfying relationships.
- Reflect on, consider and celebrate the wonders and mysteries of life.

Children who are developing spiritually are likely to be developing some or all of the following characteristics:

- A set of values, principles and beliefs, which may or may not be religious, which inform their perspective on life and their patterns of behavior.
- An awareness and understanding of their own and others' beliefs.
- A respect for themselves and for others.
- A sense of empathy with others, concern and compassion.
- An increasing ability to reflect and learn from this reflection.
- An ability to show courage and persistence in defense of their aims, values, principles and beliefs.
- A readiness to challenge all that would constrain the human spirit, for example, poverty of aspiration, lack of self-confidence and belief, moral neutrality or indifference, force, fanaticism, aggression, greed, injustice, narrowness of vision, self-interest, sexism, racism and other forms of discrimination.
- An appreciation of the intangible - for example, beauty, truth, love, goodness, order, as well as for mystery, paradox and ambiguity.
- A respect for insight as well as knowledge and reason.
- An expressive and/or creative impulse.
- An ability to think in terms of the 'whole' - for example, concepts such as harmony, interdependence, scale, perspective.
- An understanding of feelings and emotions and their likely impact.

Moral Development

At St Philip's we aim to provide learning opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- Recognise the unique value of each individual.
- Recognise the challenge of Jesus' teaching.
- Listen and respond appropriately to the views of others.
- Gain the confidence to cope with setbacks and learn from mistakes.
- Take initiative and act responsibly with consideration for others.
- Distinguish between right and wrong.
- Show respect for the environment.
- Make informed and independent judgements.

Children who are developing morally are likely to be developing some or all of the following characteristics:

- An ability to distinguish right from wrong, based on a knowledge of the moral codes of their own and other cultures.
- A confidence to act consistently in accordance with their own principles.
- An ability to think through the consequences of their own and others' actions.
- A willingness to express their views on ethical issues and personal values.
- An ability to make responsible and reasoned judgements on moral dilemmas.
- A commitment to personal values in areas which are considered right by some and wrong by others.
- A considerate style of life.
- A respect for others' needs, interests and feelings, as well as their own.
- A desire to explore their own and others' views.
- An understanding of the need to review and re-assess their values, codes and principles in the light of experience.

Social Development

At St Philip's as a school we aim to promote opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- Develop an understanding of their individual and group identity.
- Learn about service in the school and wider community.
- Begin to understand the Christian and other faiths' imperative for social justice and a concern for the disadvantaged.

Pupils who are becoming socially aware are likely to be developing the ability to:

- Adjust to a range of social contexts by appropriate and sensitive behavior.
- Relate well to other people's social skills and personal qualities.
- Work, successfully, as a member of a group or team.
- Challenge, when necessary and in appropriate ways, the values of a group or wider community.
- Share views and opinions with others, and work towards consensus.
- Resolve conflicts and counter forces which militate against inclusion and unity.
- Reflect on their own contribution to society and to the world of work.
- Show respect for people, living things, property and the environment.
- Benefit from advice offered by those in authority or counselling roles.
- Exercise responsibility.
- Appreciate the rights and responsibilities of individuals within the wider social setting.
- Understand how societies function and are organised in structures such as the family, the school and local and wider communities.
- Participate in activities relevant to the community.
- Understand the notion of interdependence in an increasingly complex society.

Cultural Development

At St Philip's we aim to promote opportunities that will enable pupils to:

- Recognise the value and richness of cultural diversity in Britain, and how these influence individuals and society.
- Recognise Christianity as a worldwide faith.
- Develop an understanding of their social and cultural environment.
- Develop an understanding of Britain's local, national, European, Commonwealth and global dimensions.

Pupils who are becoming culturally aware are likely to be developing some or all of the following characteristics:

- An ability to recognise and understand their own cultural assumptions and values.
- An understanding of the influences which have shaped their own cultural heritage.
- An understanding of the dynamic, evolutionary nature of cultures.

- An ability to appreciate cultural diversity and accord dignity and respect to other people's values and beliefs, thereby challenging racism and valuing race equality.
- An openness to new ideas and a willingness to modify cultural values in the light of experience.
- An ability to use language and understand images/icons, for example, in music, art, literature which have significance and meaning in a culture.
- A willingness to participate in, and respond to, artistic and cultural enterprises.
- A sense of personal enrichment through encounter with cultural media and traditions from a range of cultures.
- A regard for the heights of human achievement in all cultures and societies.
- An appreciation of the diversity and interdependence of cultures.

Monitoring and Evaluation

At St Philip's provision for SMSC is monitored and reviewed on a regular basis.

This is achieved by:

- SMSC is monitored as a part of learning walks, lesson observations, scrutiny of records of pupils' work and pupil voice consultations.
- analysis of this information identifies strength in practice and next steps for improvement.
- discussion at staff and governors' meetings accordingly.
- sharing of classroom work and practice.
- reviewing policies and curriculum maps.
- reviewing Collective Worship policy and practice.

This policy will be reviewed

every two years. Policy review
