

The prefixes un means not, or the opposite of. It can be put in front of some words, but not others. Tick the real words and put a cross next to the made up words.

- | | | | |
|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| 1. unkind <input type="checkbox"/> | 2. unhit <input type="checkbox"/> | 3. unkick <input type="checkbox"/> | 4. unable <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. unhop <input type="checkbox"/> | 6. unbolt <input type="checkbox"/> | 7. unscrew <input type="checkbox"/> | 8. unblue <input type="checkbox"/> |

Fill in the missing words in these sentences.

untie

unfair

unhappy

unused

9. It was because Lily had more tries than anyone else.
10. Jack was because he had lost the game.
11. Oliver could not his shoe laces.
12. The skateboard lay in the cupboard.

Write a sentence using each of these words.

unbolt

unkind
