

What Makes a Good Friend?

Starry-Eyed Stan

What was Stan like at the beginning of the story?

Can you think of the words that best describe Stan at the beginning of the story?

boastful

friendly

selfish

caring

rude

kind

What was Stan like at the beginning of the story?

At the beginning of the story, Stan was very boastful. He thought that his talent was amazing.

He was very selfish when the other starfish wanted him to teach them how to sing. He thought that he was too good for that.

Stan was very rude in the way that he spoke to the other starfish. He just laughed at them.

What was Jay like?

Can you think of the words that best describe Jay?

What was Jay like?

Jay was a very kind friend. She cared for others and helped Stan when he needed someone the most.

She was very brave and knew that it was best to work as part of a team.

How would you describe Stan at the end of the story?

Can you think of the words that best describe Stan at the end of the story?

selfish

sorry

proud

humble

grumpy

bossy

grateful

How would you describe Stan at the end of the story?

At the end of the story, Stan was very humble. He was sorry for being selfish and realised that he shouldn't have been so boastful.

Stan was very grateful for what Jay and the other starfish had done to help him. He was proud of them for being brave. Stan realised that it is best to work together, as part of a team. He decided to say thank you by setting up his own singing school!

