

Monday 8th February 2021

English

Alliteration

What is Alliteration?

Alliteration is the repetition of the same sound or letter at the beginning of each or most of the words in a sentence.

Mickey Mouse

Minnie Mouse

Donald Duck

Photo courtesy of Loren Javier (@flickr.com) - granted under creative commons licence - attribution

Examples of Alliteration

In these tongue twisters you can see alliteration:

She sells seashells
down by the seashore.

Peter Piper picked a peck of pickled peppers.

Can you spot what letter the tongue twisters begin with?

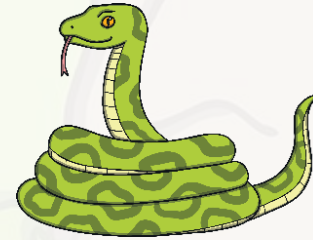

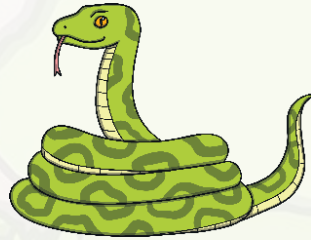

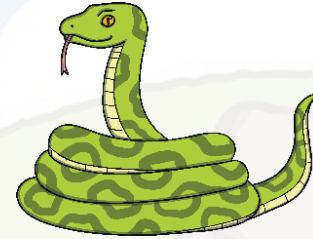

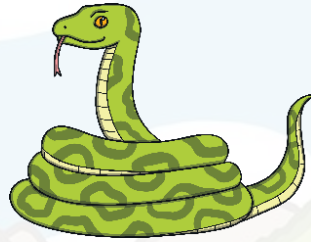

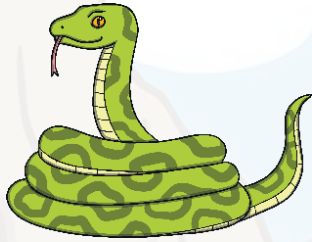

Examples of Alliteration

Here are some more examples of alliteration using a letter:

Squawking seagulls swoop on sunbathers.

Examples of Alliteration

Six slimy, smooth, slithering snakes.

Can you think of any adjectives to describe the shark beginning with 's'?

Can you think of any adjectives to describe the cats beginning with 'c'?

Your task

Label the pictures of the animals with as many adjectives as you can think of. Remember that the adjectives need to start with the same sound as the animal e.g. pretty parrot.

Monday 8 February 2021

I can use alliteration

How many adjectives can you think of to describe each animal?
Remember to choose adjectives that start with the same start sound as the animal e.g. enormous elephant. In the final box, think of your own animal and own adjectives to describe it using alliteration.

loud

long

lucky

