

Year 4: Badminton

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Types of serves and shots	Important knowledge about Badminton rally	When you strike the shuttlecock back and forth without it dropping to the floor or being out of play.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can perform a defensive swing, forehand and backhand shot.
serve	An action to start the beginning of play.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can return a ball using the forehand motion.
accuracy	Aiming at then hitting the target.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can perform a rally using a racket and a balloon.
evaluate	Comment on own and others performance.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can return a shuttlecock using a racket and the forehand technique.
fundamental movements	Basic traveling skills of badminton.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can accurately serve a ball.
strength	How strong you are.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can rally a shuttlecock using accuracy.
reaction	How you respond to something moving.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can perform an overhead clear shot and a drive shot.
defensive clear	A defensive overhead shot that is used to defend your area.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can return a shuttlecock using an overhead clear shot and a drive shot.
Forehand serve	A shot used to start a match.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can perform an overhead clear shot and a drive shot as part of a rally.
flight	When the shuttlecock is traveling through the air.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can return a shuttlecock using a range of shots.
			<input type="checkbox"/> I can aim to land the shuttlecock in different areas of the court.
			<input type="checkbox"/> I can perform a forehand, backhand, smash and clear shot in isolation.