

Year 3: The Dragon Song Knowledge Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		World instruments	Important knowledge about pop music polyrhythm	More than one rhythm being played at the same time.	 Zurna (above) Tabla (below) 	<input type="checkbox"/> I can perform a rhythm on a percussion instrument in time with others.
folk music	Music which is passed on from generation to generation through listening and sharing. This style reflects the area and people from where it is from.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can improvise to aid my performance and develop rhythm.
melody	The tune made of high / low and long / short notes.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can use louds/quiets in my composition.
tempo	The speed of the music.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can use a change of texture (more or less instruments at different times).
composing	To create your own music.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can use different tempos improving	To create your own music on the spot.	Polyrhythms	<input type="checkbox"/> I can create my own rhythms and be able to accurately repeat these.
phrase	A musical sentence.	More than one rhythm at a time.	<input type="checkbox"/> I can compose for two parts to create polyrhythms.
dizi	A bamboo flute from China.		<input type="checkbox"/> Folk music sounds different wherever you are in the world as it is based on local cultures, instruments and styles.
tabla	And Indian instrument.
zurna	A Turkish instrument which makes a sound using a double reed.		