

Year 3: Netball

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Important Information	Important Knowledge
zonal defence	Players are given an area (a zone) to cover.	 	<input type="checkbox"/> I can move using speed and agility.
shoulder pass	A one-handed netball pass for longer distances.		<input type="checkbox"/> I know different attacking and defending techniques.
pivot	A swivel movement on one foot (the landing foot).		<input type="checkbox"/> I know how to perform a chest pass, bounce pass and shoulder pass.
attacking	A forceful attempt to gain an advantage.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can pass a netball to a moving partner using a chest or shoulder pass.
accuracy	The ability to perform movements with precision.		<input type="checkbox"/> I know the correct shooting technique in netball.
power	The ability to perform strength-based movements quickly.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can work with a partner to attack the goal.
intercept	Prevent someone from receiving the ball.		<input type="checkbox"/> I know tactics to attack and defend.
footwork	The way your feet move when performing a skill.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can intercept a ball.
marking	Trying to prevent the opposition from making or receiving a pass.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can play an adapted version of netball.
body position	How your body moves when performing a skill.		<input type="checkbox"/> I can apply my learning in a game of netball.