Subject Specific Vocabulary		Rights of the child	Belonging to a Community
protection	Like a barrier to stop something happening.	 The infographic is titled 'unicef BELIEVE IN ZERO' and 'The UN Convention on the Rights of the Child'. It lists six rights: 'be protected' (child with umbrella), 'be educated' (child with ABCs), 'be healthy' (child running), 'be treated fairly' (child on seesaw), 'be heard' (child speaking), and 'be heard' (child with speech bubble). A speech bubble explains that the convention spells out four basic rights: survival, protection, development, and participation. It also mentions the goal of 'ZERO' suffering for children.	<input type="checkbox"/> I know the reasons for rules and laws in society.
