Year 4: Online Safety Knowledge Mat

Subject Specific Vocabulary		Information	Important Knowledge
upstander	An upstander is someone who takes action against bullying behaviour		❑ I know how to protect my online reputation. ❑ I know how to work out whether information online is true and reliable. ❑ I know how to protect my online reputation. ❑ I know how to get help if I regret sharing something online. ❑ I know how not to be an over-sharer. ❑ I know what phishing is. ❑ I know top tips on how to 'Be Internet Sharp' and 'Be internet Alert. ❑ I know what a cyberbullying is and how to deal with them. ❑ I know how to show kindness online. ❑ I know how to create a strong password.
cyberbully	Someone who uses electronic communication to bully a person, for example by messages or comments.
online reputation	Online reputation is anything that appears about them on the internet.
fake	Not real or an imitation that is designed to trick someone into thinking it is real when it isn't.
digital footprint	Everything on the internet that makes you, you. For example: photos, audio, videos, texts, blog posts and messages that you write on friends' pages.
content	Content is the text, pictures, video, or anything else in the page or file.
auto correct	A software function that automatically makes or suggests corrections.
body	The main content (text) on the page.
phishing	Phishing is when someone tries to steal information through an email, text, or other online communication.
oversharer	A person who gives more information than is appropriate.		